ALL KINDS OF RUMORS.

Wild rumors have flown over the land almost as they did in the dark days of 1898 when so many people thought they could pay their debts by bankrupting.

During that time, cotton was cheap, and people owed a lot of money, as people always do when they can borrow it. They jumped at what the shyster lawyer told them was a chance to evade the payment of their just debts, and they have never recovered yet. Their property and substance were taken and their credit crippled.

The man who went to his creditor, in most cases his friend, and told him the true situation, and acted honestly, has had good credit since, and his debts were arranged in such a way that he could pay them.

Whenever hard times come honesty is developed, and dishonesty brought out. The man who wants to do what is right, has no trouble in making his creditor understand what he means, and usually a way is provided.

During the past few weeks all kinds of reports have gone out from Dothan. The reports say men are being broken up—sold out, lock, stock and barrel, but here in Dothan no such reports can be run down. No case in point can be shown, unless it is where a man is trying to beat his obligations. That is what has saved this country—the actions of the creditors, the supply merchants, the fertilizer men, the bankers, who have money out all over this country. They know more about the condition than the politician at Washington. And the government funds? They have helped wonderfully, for the banks could not have extended the courtesy without this fund. It doesn't matter how it was handled, it was handled in such a way that so far it has been a relief to the man who owed money, secured by a mortgage on his real estate. The man who cusses his banker usually doesn't know what he is talking about. He is talking on rumors instead of facts. The banks cannot thrive unless their patrons thrive. If the patrons are broken up and their business destroyed, the banks are hurt. The bankers know this.

When the price of cotton creeps along to around eight cents, business will begin to pick up as if it were worth twelve. We have a big crop down this way, and eight cents would put a good deal of money in circulation.

One Thing Mind Tigers Can See. A tiger never was so blind that he could not see danger in public sentiment.—Huntsboro Tribune.

THREE ACRES NET $514.61.

While we are reading of the Al- lies and the Germans, and wonder- ing when cotton will go up another $5 a bale, it is really helpful to read an article in this issue of The Eagle, telling how much money three Georgia boys made off three acres of corn.

The boys, it seems, took a premium at the Macon fair this week. One raised 227 bushels of corn, which netted him $180.20; another, raised 210 bushels, netting $178.00, while another raised 220 bushels netting $156.41. These corn growing boys were brothers, and the total money received from three acres of corn was $514.61.

It would have taken 35 acres planted in cotton to have grown cotton, at $30 a bale, enough to represent three acres in corn. It would have cost a good deal to have cultivated that many acres in cotton—certainly two weeks most of the time, with two men, to say nothing of extra help in planting, fertilization, and then picking the cotton. There is no way of finding out just how much it would have cost to raise enough cotton to represent $514. And you must remember, that this amount represents net profit on the corn. It doesn't represent gross receipts.

We have concluded, that such a year as this, if three men had worked hard all the year, then hired help in chopping the cotton and having it picked, that they would have probably cleared the seed out of the 17 bales, which might have been worth $85 at the present time. If they were not good farmers they couldn't have done so well.

We who know what it takes to make cotton, know that there is at least three or four times more work in growing an acre of cotton than there is in growing one in corn.

Here are three boys who grew 657 bushels of corn, on an acre each. It would have been a regular loafer's job for one of those boys to have done all the work himself. One 16-year-old boy can plant and cultivate three acres in corn, and fish Friday and Saturday, and take in all the picnics and all-day singings in the whole country, and take a two months' vacation in summer, and three months' vacation in winter. Not a hard life, at all, to make money growing corn on that kind of a plan. It is different when you try to grow cotton to make money.

We believe that Houston county lands will equal any in Georgia. We believe we have a number of boys in this county who could do just as well as the Georgia boys, and we further believe that any one boy can cultivate 5 acres in corn, which should yield, at the same rate $857.75. Remember, that is the profit—the net profit. All expenses were taken from these figures. That is enough profit to buy 5 acres at $100 an acre, then a good mule, buggy and wagon—all for one year's work, for a plug of a boy, who has the right idea about growing a money crop.

The average boy's father couldn't do it. His father is planting cotton because his father before him planted it. Not many old time farmers believe 200 bushels of corn were ever grown on an acre of cotton, just as there are some who do not believe we have a war going on, which has demoralized cotton prices. To have modern farmers, who will try something else besides cotton, we must either look to the boys, or import farmers from other sections. We can't expect them from the farmers of the old type.

Rev. H. M. Edmonds of Birmingham, chaplain to the Age-Herald, put a big sermon in a few lines:

"Raising Cane" Profitable this Year

HOW FRENCH PEOPLE

CURE STOMACH TROUBLE

A household remedy of the French peasantry, consisting of pure vegetable oil, and said to possess wonderful merit in the treatment of stomach, liver and intestinal troubles, has been introduced in this country by George H. Mayr, who for twenty years has been one of the leading down town druggists of Chicago and who himself was cured by its use. So quick and effective is its action that a single dose is usually enough to bring pronounced relief in the most stubborn cases, and many people who have tried it declare they never heard of anything to produce such remarkable results in so short a time. It is known as Mayr's Wonderful Stomach Remedy and can now be had at almost any drug store. It is now sold here by W. L. Brown. adv

A Message To Women

Those of Middle Age Especially.

When you have found no remedy for the horrors that oppress you during change of life, when through the long hours of the day it seems as though your back would break, when your head aches constantly, you are nervous, depressed and suffer from those dreadful bearing down pains, don't forget that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the safest and surest remedy, and has carried hundreds of women safely through this critical period.

Read what these three women say:

From Mrs. Hornung, Buffalo, N. Y.

BUFFALO, N. Y.—"I am writing to let you know how much your medicine has done for me. I failed terribly during the last winter and summer and every one remarked about my appearance. I suffered from a female trouble and always had pains in my back, no appetite and at times was very weak."

"I was visiting at a friend's house one day and she thought I needed Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and have gained eight pounds, have a good appetite and am feeling better every day. Everybody is asking me what I am doing and I recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. You may publish this letter if you wish and I hope others who have the same complaint will see it and get health from your medicine as I did."—Mrs. A. HORNUNG, 91 Stanton St., Buffalo, N. Y.

Was A Blessing To This Woman.

So. RICHMOND, VA.—"I was troubled with a bearing down pain and a female weakness and could not stand long on my feet. Of all the medicines I took nothing helped me like Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I am now regular and am getting along fine. I cannot praise the Compound too much. It has been a blessing to me and I hope it will be to other women."—Mrs. D. TYLER, 23 West Clifton St., South Richmond, Va.

Pains in Side, Could Hardly Stand.

LOUI, WIS.—"I was in a bad condition, suffering from a female trouble, and I had such pains in my sides I could hardly move. Before I had taken the whole of one bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I felt better, and now I am well and can do a good day's work. I tell everybody what your medicine has done for me."—Mrs. JOHN THOMPSON, Lodi, Wisconsin.

For 30 years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has been the standard remedy for female ills. No one sick with woman's ailments does justice to herself if she does not try this famous medicine made from roots and herbs. It has restored so many suffering women to health.

Governors Conference Convenes Today

Governor Emmet O'Neal, of Alabama, reads his report before the Body of Chief Executives This Afternoon.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 10. Governors of most of the states of the Union and many ex-governors and other prominent men interested in the questions to be discussed gathered here today for the seventh annual session of the Governors' Conference. The meeting will last five days.

Among the matters to come before the chief executives of the commonwealths are rural credits, natural resources, foreign corporations, extradition, the Governor's relation to measure he wishes passed by the Legislature of the State, safety and sanitation laws, and administration machinery.

The Governors gathered at the Wisconsin State capitol this morning and listened to addresses of welcome from Governor Francis E. McGovern of Wisconsin, Mayor A. H. Kayer of Madison, and President Charles R. Van Hise of the University of Wisconsin. Governor Joseph M. Carey, of Wyoming, delivered a response to the addresses of welcome, on behalf of the Governors.

O'Neal to Make Report.

This afternoon Governor Emmet O'Neal of Alabama, chairman of the committee on rural credits, read the report of the committee. There will be several social features to the conference and many of the visitors have brought their wives and members of their families. Tonight Governor McGovern will give a reception in the Governor's reception room, which will be followed by dancing in the Assembly Chamber.

Tomorrow Governor William Spry of Utah will speak on "State Control of Natural Resources," the University of Wisconsin will give a luncheon and an executive session will be held. Thursday Governor Charles R. Miller of Delaware will speak on "Uniformity of Laws," fixing the conditions to be met by foreign corporations before doing business in a State. Governor S. V. Stewart of Montana on "Extradition," and Governor F. M. Byrne of South Dakota on "Submission of the Governors' Recommendation in Bill Form."

On Friday Governor Edward P. Dunne of Illinois will address the conference on "Uniformity of Safety and Sanitation Laws for Places of Employment, including Administrative Machinery," and a dinner will be given by the Madison Board of Commerce, which also has the general arrangements for the conference in charge.

Saturday the Governors will adjourn to the city of Milwaukee, where they will be the guests of the Chamber of Commerce, Citizens' Business League and the Merchants and Manufacturers' Association of that city.

PROGRAM IS COMPLETED FOR S. S. CONVENTION

Big Meeting of Sunday School Delegates to be Held in Dothan April 7, 8, 9, 1914.

By the action of the State Executive Committee, the Thirty-first Annual State Convention of the Alabama Sunday School Association will be held in Dothan, Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, April 7, 8, 9, 1914. This will be the first time in thirteen years that it has been held in Southeast Alabama and the presidential indications are that it will be the best and strongest convention that the Association has yet held. At the convention in Mobile last year 1,014 delegates, representing 15 denominations, and every county in Alabama except 3, were in attendance. It is hoped this year that every county will be represented.

The local arrangements are in the hands of a committee of prominent business men, of which Mr. H. R. McCutcheon, President of the Houston county Sunday School Association is chairman. The Dothan Chamber of Commerce, which took the initiative in bringing the convention to Dothan, is co-operating with the Sunday School Association.

General Secretary Leon C. Palmer of Montgomery, announces that the complete program has been prepared.

ed and approved and that more than thirty of the sixty speakers on the program have already accepted. Among the leading speakers will be Jno. L. Alexander, of Chicago, "Teen-Age" superintendent of the International Sunday School Association and first executive secretary of the Boy Scout movement; Jno. R. Samper, of Louisville, Ky., Professor of Old Testament Interpretations in the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary; S. A. Russell of Anniston, first general secretary of the Alabama Sunday School Association; Miss Minnie B. Kennedy of Birmingham, general secretary of the Birmingham Sunday School Association; E. L. Dodson, of Tuscaloosa, president of the Tuscaloosa county Sunday School Association; Miss Mattie Houston, of Mobile, president of the Mobile Graded Union; P. E. Green of Birmingham, educational superintendent for Alabama for the Presbyterian Church, U. S. A., and about thirty others of the leading Sunday School workers in Alabama and other states. The music will be in charge of Prof. F. O. Exord, of Chicago, one of the greatest convention chorus leaders in the world, assisted by Prof. A. W. Roper, of Winona Lake, Ind. It is expected that there will be the usual reduced rates of possibly one fare round trip. Special trains will be run from various points in Alabama direct to Dothan for the accommodation of the delegates.

Full information about the convention can be secured from Leon C. Palmer, general secretary of the Alabama Sunday School Association, Montgomery, Ala.

ONE FUNERAL IN EVERY TEN AMONG CHURCH MEMBERS DUE TO TUBERCULOSIS

Study of 3,000 Churches with 1,000,000 Members, Shows One Case of Consumption a Year for Every 20 Communicants.

In an effort to ascertain how serious a problem tuberculosis is to the average church congregation of the United States, the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis publishes today a report which shows that in nearly 3,000 churches in 37 different states one funeral in every ten is due to this single disease.

Through a questionnaire sent out all over the country, 2,582 clergymen representing 1,003,300 communicants or parishioners gave responses telling at how many funerals they officiated for the year ending August 31, 1913; how many of these were due to tuberculosis; how many living cases of tuberculosis they now have in their parishes; and how many communicants or parishioners. There were 24,798 deaths from all causes reported, showing a death rate of 229.4 per 10,000 population, which is considerably higher than the corresponding rate for the entire country, 138.7 in 1912. This high death rate is probably due to the fact that pastors of churches officiate at many funerals of others than members or communicants, while their membership reports are taken from actual records.

As indicating the extent of the tuberculosis problem in the average church the figures show that 10.3 per cent of all the funerals reported were caused by tuberculosis and that, in addition to the 2,794 deaths from this disease, the ministers had 4,254 living cases now under their pastoral supervision. In one year, therefore, the 2,582 churches were caring for 8,048 cases of tuberculosis, or an average of nearly three for each congregation. The average size of the congregations was 56, which would indicate that there is a case of tuberculosis developing each year for every twenty church members.

Because tuberculosis demands so much time and money from the churches, the National Association for the Study and Prevention of Tuberculosis is calling upon all of

DANDRUFF SOON RUNS THE HAIR

Makes It Lustrous, Dull, Dry, Brittle and Thin.

Girls—if you want plenty of thick, beautiful, glossy, silky hair, do by all means get rid of dandruff, for it will starve your hair and ruin it if you don't. It doesn't do much good to try to brush or wash it out. The only sure way to get rid of dandruff is to dissolve it, then you destroy it entirely. To do this, get about four ounces of ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips. By morning, most if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy every single sign and trace of it. You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop, and your hair will be silky, shiny, lustrous, soft, and look and feel a hundred times better. You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive and four ounces is all you will need, no matter how much dandruff you have. This simple remedy gives hair.

teen. All the reports showed excellent work on the part of the committees in charge and everything in readiness to welcome the delegates when they arrive next week.

Mrs. Louis G. Young was elected honorary vice president at the meeting. Mrs. Young had formerly been an active member of the chapter but had withdrawn sometime ago. When it was understood that she wished to resume her membership she was unanimously elected honorary vice president as a mark of appreciation for her services. Mrs. Young has been much interested in the new hall and has loaned for one year, much handsome furniture, besides presenting an armchair in memory of her mother. The Messrs. Henderson also presented a handsome chair in memory of their mother. A pier glass and a number of valuable books and pictures were among the other gifts acknowledged yesterday. Two pictures were presented by Mrs. N. G. Brewer in memory of her father, Captain Leggett, of North Carolina. Mrs. R. T. Semmes presented a Morris chair to the Veterans' room.

Reports of plans for the convention next week were enthusiastically received. Everything is in readiness for the arrival of the delegates and a most successful convention is anticipated. Because of the fact that two big entertainments at the DeSoto, the luncheon and reception, would have come on the same day, it was decided yesterday to have the luncheon for the delegates on Friday and to have the entertainment with the Children of the Confederacy will give at Memorial Hall on Wednesday.

Mrs. Hall has asked the following people to be present at the Veterans' room on the afternoons that the Daughters of the Confederacy will be entertained at Memorial Hall: General and Mrs. Young, Captain and Mrs. Bloodworth and Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Morgan, Mrs. William Garrard and Mrs. Charles Ellis will have charge of the officers table at the luncheon on Friday. The cards for this table will be mailed by Mrs. Robert Travis. They will have two crossed Confederate flags in one corner. They will also bear a picture of the Confederate Memorial Hall.

SHE CRIED "WRETCH" AT ACCUSED SIEGEL.
Genesee N. Y., Nov. 10.—When Justice W. W. Clark adjourned supreme court here today four of the jurors who will determine whether or not Henry Siegel, bankrupt merchant and banker, was guilty of a criminal act in the conduct of his New York business, had been selected.

A woman, said to be a creditor of one of the Siegel stores, caused some excitement just after court adjourned when she rushed up to Siegel and made a move as if to strike him, at the same time calling a "wretch." Detectives removed her from the court room.

OUR LIMITED SENSES.

They Fail to Make Us Cognizant of Many Things About Us.

If man were endowed with 200 senses, each as different from the other and as full of perceptive power as the ears and eyes, the human race might be justified for its egotism. The scientific as well as religious opinion that mankind "thinks a thing or two" and is "lord of the beasts of the field, the bird in the air" and over all inanimate nature might then be at least more justifiable than with his present endowment of a mere "handful" of sense organs.

Besides ultra-microscopic living beings, some beneficial, some friendly and some inimical—witness the virus of rabies, of cancer, of infantile paralysis—there are millions and millions of real things in the physical world beyond the reach of our senses. Just as you feel heat, see light, hear winds, taste nectar and smell ozone, so if you were properly endowed with the extra, necessary hundreds of different organs you could sense:

- First.—The X rays.
- Second.—The ultra violet rays.
- Third.—Gravitation.
- Fourth.—Gamma rays.
- Fifth.—Electricity.
- Sixth.—Magnetism.
- Seventh.—Hertzian wireless wave rays.
- Eighth.—Beta rays of radium, thorium, uranium.
- Ninth.—Fast cathode rays from vacuum bulbs.
- Tenth.—Canal rays, electrical in vacuum bulbs.
- Eleventh.—Slow cathode rays from incandescent bodies and chemical reactions.
- Twelfth.—Infra-red rays that are not felt as heat.

Those and many elements, such as oxygen, hydrogen, helium—the alpha rays of radium—and argon, can only be sensed by the roundabout and circuitously indirect methods.

The battle of the human race against its mysterious environment is an unequal one. If the victory is always to the stronger, man has little chance in this unfair contest.

Happily, the experimental laboratory, as well as the "catch-as-catch-can" method of the "try and try again" inventor, lends gargantuan countenance to human pounding upon the doors of our shut-in environment. Inventors and laboratory workers are the Argus eyed myriads of extra senses, which give hope and promise to the weak mortal in his exploration of the world of real but unseen things.—Denver News.

ANOTHER ONE FOOLED

Cameron Ferguson in Judge. We met; Platonic friendship, we agreed, was best; Impersonal, of course, but everlasting chums, To run about together, seeing things. With just the touch of sentiment, perhaps, A brother shows toward his dearest sister; But of that treacherous state called "love" A thing apart. Our walks and talks were quite beyond compare, Tramping the countryside like any men, Or sitting by the fire, discoursing life; Immune from all those promptings of the heart That spoiled the peaceful harmony of mind, Till, when we least expected, came along

The other man—
A brute, with smile insidious, of the kind That talks of souls united, hearts as one, And flutters all the reason out of girls, Whether they wish or whether they do not, Suffice it that he came, he saw, he conquered; And I found, instead of being right, as I supposed, That I was left.

Wedding Toilets That Are the Style—

Wedding gowns for October and November are being built of golden-rod satin and also of faille, which is coming to the fore now as an ultra fashionable material. Many of the Paris dancing frocks just arrived are of faille in soft, lustrous weaves, and for the stately lines of bridal gowns there is a slightly heavier faille crassique, which comes in the desired ivory tone. Wedding veils of tulle do not cover the head now, but are attached in places at the back of a lace cap, which sets becomingly on the hair.—Exchange.

F. D. C. Meeting—

One of the most interesting meetings of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was held Friday afternoon with Mrs. R. T. Ghent as hostess.

Mrs. W. M. Hunter interestingly read this splendid paper, which was enjoyed by each member. This paper was read by Miss Rutherford at the general convention held in New Orleans last year.

Tea and sandwiches were served by Mrs. W. F. Usery and Miss Marguerite Ghent.

WISHED SHE COULD DIE

And Be Free From Her Troubles, but Finds Better Way.

Columbia, Tenn.—"Many a time," says Mrs. Jessie Snapp, of this place, "I wished I would die and be relieved of my suffering, from womanly troubles. I could not get up, without pulling at something to help me, and stayed in bed most of the time. I could not do my housework."

The least amount of work tired me out. My head would swim, and I would tremble for an hour or more. Finally I took Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I am not bothered with pains any more, and I don't have to go to bed. In fact, I am sound and well of all my troubles."

Cardui goes to all the weak spots and helps to make them strong. It acts with nature—not against her. It is for the tired, nervous, irritable women, who feel as if everything were wrong, and need something to quiet their nerves and strengthen the worn-out system.

If you are a woman, suffering from any of the numerous symptoms of womanly trouble, take Cardui. It will help you. Ask all druggists.
